Kate DiCamillo

Just like in her books, Kate DiCamillo has traveled far. She was born on March 25 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. When she was five years old, along with her mother and her older brother, she moved to Clermont, Florida. Her health was fragile and the warm air would be better for her.

She attended College in Florida and even had a job at Walt Disney World in Florida. She moved more to the north to Minneapolis, Minnesota where she worked on the third floor of a second-hand bookstore.

She has always had a fascination with words and stories. She considers herself extremely lucky to be able to be a storyteller and write stories for a living.

Since the year 2000 she has been very busy. She has been honored and rewarded for her work. Her novel Because of Winn-Dixie won a Newbery Honor. Then, her following book, The Tiger Rising was nominated for the National Book Award. Two years later The Tale of Despereaux received the Newbery Medal. Then, in 2005, Because of Winn-Dixie came out as a movie! Today she continues to write, tells stories, speaks to students and fellow writers.

Did You Know?

- Kate lives and writes in Minneapolis, Minnesota.
- The Tale of Despereaux won the 2003 Newbery Award.
- Kate has no children of her own but she is an aunt to Luke, Roxanne and Max.
